

Stakeholder analysis – Example

Example : Advocacy for the protection and promotion of women's rights in the Batticaloa District, Eastern Province of Sri Lanka (ESDF)

Stakeholder table
Stakeholders	Importance 3 = Fundamental 2 = Very important 1 = Not important	Impacts on the project	Interests	Influence Strategy
1. Ministry of Women's Rights, Ministry of Justice and Ministry of Health	3	+/-	The central government authorities wish to ensure respect for the rights of women and combat the violence against them.	Advocacy campaigns, training of public officials with a focus on social and legal assistants.
2. District	3	+	The representatives of the central government in the Eastern Province wish more specifically to improve the data collection system as well as the treatment of cases of sexual violence.	Advocacy campaigns, training of public officials and in particular of women's rights officers and legal advisers, the establishment of a regular working group.
3. Divisional Secretariats	3	+	The decentralized local authorities pursue the same interest as the District, namely the improvement of the data collection system and the treatment of cases of sexual violence.	Advocacy campaigns, training of public officials and in particular of women's rights officers and legal advisers, the establishment of a regular working group.
4. Other government-related services such as the police, courts, mediation	3	+/-	These services are involved in the medical, social, and judicial care of victims of	Advocacy, training, material, and financial support.

TOOLS – PHASE 1 : PROGRAMING

council, hospitals, etc.			sexual violence, but they lack the means (both theoretical knowledge and financial resources) to fulfill their mission. They, therefore, wish to develop their means of action.
5. "Women's Affairs Societies"	3	+	These structures fight against sexual violence against women by strengthening vulnerable women. However, they have limited means and would like to see them developed.	Training and capacity building
6. Federations of "Women's Affairs Societies" at the District and Divisional Secretariats level	2	+	To date, there has been no coordination of the Women's Affairs Societies, which does not allow the message from the field to be brought to the attention of the authorities and their action to be sustained.	Creation of a network bringing together the Federations of "Women's Affairs Societies" and strengthening of each of these federations.
7. Single mothers and women	3	+	It is these women who are most vulnerable to the risk of sexual violence and discrimination. They want their rights to be fully respected and no longer be discriminated against or subjected to violence.	Legal, psycho-social assistance, capacity building for the emergence of political leaders.

TOOLS – PHASE 1 : PROGRAMING

8. ESDF	3	+	ESDF wishes to ensure respect for the rights of women and fight against gender-based violence throughout the Batticaloa District.	Implementation of the project.
9. PADEM	3	+	PADEM wishes to promote gender equality and fight against all forms of violence against women.	Design, monitoring and evaluation of the project.
10. Lessors	3	+	Donors wish to support sustainable action in favor of respecting women's rights and ensure efficient spending of funds.	Funding request dossier, operational planning report, monitoring and evaluation reports.

Stakeholder matrix
		IMPORTANCE
		No importance	Low importance	Medium Importance	High Importance
I N F L U E N C E	High Influence			1 3 2 9 8 4 5 6
	Medium Influence
	Low influence			7 10
	No influence				