

Updated logical context - Example

	Intervention logic	Objectively verifiable indicators (OVI)	Sources of verification	Assumptions or hypotheses
Global objective (Thematic)	Enable greater equality of future opportunities for all children in Senegal

TOOLS - PHASE 4: MONITORING

Specific objective	Sustainably improve the living conditions of vulnerable children by promoting equal opportunities for all children in Senegal	417 young girls exposed or victims of excision were supported in the development of their IGA and their literacy in Matam, Senegal 220 young girls exposed or victims of violence received medical, psychosocial and / or legal care during the 3-year project in Matam, Senegal 20 excisors were sensitized and supported for the abandonment of their practice during the 3 years of the project in Matam, Senegal	Quarterly monitoring reports from the local partner, annual reports from the partner + annexes, lists of beneficiaries, volunteer monitoring visits, project manager monitoring visit, updated logical framework from the partner, visit by a PADEM consultant for preparation mid-term evaluation	The community agrees to change its hygiene habits The women's community changes its perspective on excision practices
---------------------------	---	--	--	---	--

TOOLS - PHASE 4: MONITORING

	Expected result (s) of the project	Starting IOV	Achievements year 2020 (start of the 2017 project, i.e. after 3 years of the project)	Comments
	A fight against violence and mistreatment of children (excision) is carried out	80% of the targets (15,000 people) reached by this project master the information related to violence and mutilation and know how to protect themselves 50 young girls receive legal support	32,659 parents and young girls are made aware of GBV. 7,633 other people were sensitized through talks and 841 series of 5 VAD were organized 6 radio testimonials were broadcast during 30 programs (instead of the 90 planned) 220 child victims (23 in 2019, 84 in 2018 and 113 in 2017) were identified and provided with legal support	Comments: The advice cards (100), picture boxes (100) and prospectuses (1500) created in 2017 must be reproduced (out of stock). Psychosocial monitoring tools have been revised for better efficiency

TOOLS - PHASE 4: MONITORING

		50 young victims or exposed are identified and supported in terms of health 50 young victims or exposed are identified and supported on a social level 15 villages are enrolled in the program 15 Badienu Gox are trained and involved in listening and monitoring victims and excisors Support structures are committed and form a functional support chain	220 children were received and interviewed on their health situation 220 children are followed psychosocial and medical 15 villages are enrolled in the program 15 Badienu Gox are trained and involved in listening to and monitoring victims and excisors 76 public talks were organized 841 series of 5 VAD were organized The 60 young people trained since 2017 continue to commit to the protection of their peers in 2019, 90 young people and women also provide IEC at the village level, 90 women trained are involved in raising parents' awareness. 14 monitoring and protection committees are installed and operational
--	--	---	--	--

TOOLS - PHASE 4: MONITORING

		A reference situation is available in the region 15 listening points and operational advice are open in each of the 15 project villages 400 young women victims or exposed benefit from literacy classes, are trained 400 young women receive training in running a small business	3 departmental forums were organized 100 public and private people were reinforced during the forum 3 excisors retraining events were organized 3 international days of women and 4 world days of excision were organized A baseline situation is available and has been shared with community stakeholders 15 listening and advice points have been set up as well as 14 monitoring committees 417 young girls victims or exposed benefit from literacy classes and training in management of a small business, thanks to 10 literacy classes including 5 in French and 5 in poular 10 literacy classes including 5 in French and 5 in Poular were opened and more than 400 young girls exposed or victims are benefiting.
--	--	--	--	--

TOOLS - PHASE 4: MONITORING

		20 excisors are identified, sensitized and supported in economic reintegration	10 CAF having received their funding are carrying out their AGRs 20 excisors were trained in entrepreneurship 22 pacts of commitment to abandon the practice were signed 20 solvent business plans are available 20 IGAs were financed 50 excisors realized the danger of the practice 20 excisors are supported and trained for their social and economic reintegration	The association of former excisors has become a major player in the fight against FGM All the ex-excisors of the program carry out their AGR
--	--	---	---	--